Dear Visitor:

Thank you for choosing to visit the U.S. Navy Museum! Please carefully read the description of how to access the museum, USS Barry, and the Navy Yard.

Navy Yard Access for individual visitors:

- All visitors age 16 and above must present a valid photo ID to be admitted to the Washington Navy Yard.
- All visitors without military ID must enter at the 11th and O St gate and go to the Visitor's Center
- To board USS Barry, museum visitors exit Navy Yard through the one-way turnstiles in the fence opposite the ship. Once through the fence, visitors cannot be re-admitted except by walking back to the 11th and O Street gate.
- Vehicles without Naval District Washington decals are required to show vehicle registration and proof of insurance, and must stop in the visitors' center to register.

Navy Yard Access for tour and school groups:

- All school groups and tours must inform the museum at least 48 hours before arrival by calling 202-433-2385/6897 and providing the group name, number of persons, and the name of the tour leader on each bus. Upon arrival, the police will check the ID of the tour leader against a list submitted by the museum.
- Since groups are unable to re-enter the yard after visiting USS Barry, they must exit the Riverwalk at the 4th St gate to meet their bus. Buses may park beside the Trapeze School to wait for their group.

Parking:

- Bus parking is available in front of the museum seven days a week.
- Private vehicle parking is free and plentiful on weekends and holidays, but scarce and not guaranteed on weekdays.

USS Barry hours:

- Thursday and Friday: 9am to 5pm
- Saturday: 10am to 5pm
- The ship is CLOSED to the public from November 1 to March 1 for winter maintenance
- Please call the ship directly at (202) 433-3377 with any questions.

General Information:

- Food service is available in the Washington Navy Yard until 3 p.m. on weekdays ONLY (excluding holidays).
- The closest metro stop is Navy Yard (green line) and Eastern Market (orange line) *

*Please note it is approximately 1 mile walk from either metro station to the 11th and O st gate

Please call the front office at 202-433-4882 with any questions or concerns. We look forward to your visit!

Sincerely,

Museum Staff
